WE'RE MOVING

Again... Many of you have seen the reappearance of the "FOR SALE" sign and the "WE'RE MOVING" sign in front of the property as you pass by on HWY 291. We have decided to move the studio to a location with our business and home on the same property. This will make our lives much easier by not having to take care of two different properties. WE ARE NOT GOING OUT OF BUSINESS! The studio has been located on 291 for many years and we felt that it is time to combine both pieces of property into one location. This has been something that we have been looking forward to doing for quite sometime now. We were very nervous about the big FOR SALE sign in the front of the property because we did not want any of our clients to think that we were closing up shop and not doing photography anymore.

We have currently found a couple pieces of property that will work perfectly for the studio/home combo. These properties are within a few miles of our current location so there will be no inconvenience in a longer trip to visit the studio. The final puzzle piece is that we must sell the studio property before we can do the move. Although we love our location and the visibility that the geodesic dome brings, it is now time to find a new location and consolidate our properties. Jenny and I have been at this location for more than 15 years and we understand the benefits of owning a property with a few acres attached. We will be able to create outdoor shooting areas without having to leave the property. We will let everyone know immediately as to where the new studio will be located. Until then, we will be in full swing at the 291 location. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions.

Outdoors in Winter

Remember that just because it is cold and windy outside does not mean that we have to stay inside to have great portraits. No leaves on the trees or flowers in the pots, is not a problem. We know many different outdoor locations that do not require the spring, summer and fall. With the mild weather that we have been having, you would just slip off the coats, throw them to the side, and we would create a few pictures. If you are looking for something a little more than just a portrait, we can turn the image into an outstanding piece of art. These unique watercolors & paintings express your family or loved ones in a new and creative way. Do not forget that this is the time of year that we run our specials. You could get an upgrade on your family wall portrait for no additional cost. Call or stop by the studio to ask Jenny and Matt for details and pricing.

Photoblankets Are A Hit

These are a MUST SEE!! We are excited to now offer Photo Blankets!! Take any one of your images from your session and have the image turned into a 50"X60" Cotton Woven blanket. They make great gifts for family members, or for yourself. These blankets will be offered at a great price with a qualifying order. Previous clients can call and find out if they already qualify. Stop by the studio to discuss your options for creating new images to a photoblanket or finding the perfect image from an earlier session. Go to our blog and click on the image to see full blanket.

Matt Goes Back to School

On a more personal note, many of you, as being repeat clients and close friends, may already know this. Matt has gone back to school. He has been finishing up his prerequisite classes in hopes to get into the nursing program at National American University in June. He has always wanted to do something in the medical field and we have structured the studio so that Jenny will be in charge of the day to day operations. Do not worry, Matt will still be in the camera room for every session and getting bossed around by Jenny, but you might see him run out of the studio in scrubs headed to class. If all goes as planned he will be graduating in December of 2010 and will have the best of both worlds. Until then, if you talk to Matt when calling the studio and he sounds clueless to your question. It is just because he has been studying and Jenny has been doing all of the work. So please be patient with us if we are not as flexible as in the past.

Customer Referral Program

Most of you realize that our client base comes from word of mouth and the referrals of our current clients. In appreciation of this support we are continuing the "Client Referral Program". For every new client that you refer to our studio, you will receive a $50 gift certificate to J&M Imagery as soon as your referral has placed a portrait order. They will not expire and you can collect them for big savings on your next order or appointment. Always remember that we will treat your referrals as well as we treat our current clients. If you send a referral please remind them to tell us who to thank for sending them our way. If you would like referral cards to pass out to your family and friends, please call the studio at 816.525.7778.

We would like to thank all of you for continuing support and the recommendations to your friends and family. We greatly appreciate it! We hope that you had a Blessed Holiday Season and remember that there is no time like the present to create the perfect family portrait. We will let everyone know immediately of our move!

God Bless, Jerry & Matt
